2017 Lead Conference News

President Indian Joe (Ron Rabideau) attended the 2017 Lead Conference in Springfield Mo. At this conference the Henry Rowe Schoolcraft Chapter was recognized as a 4 Star Chapter for the 2016 year. This is recognition of all the members of the Henry Rowe Schoolcraft Chapter, good job to all of you. Indian Joe told me of an new app that should be ready in May for your smart phone to help you track your Trappers Brigade activates. President Indian Joe was joined at the conference by Commander Wayne & Barb Chapman, Pastor Mark & Cindy Vandenberg, Marshal Moore and National Scout Brandon Love. All the news of the planned events to come will be shared in more detail at Spring Adventure so don't miss it.

Welcome to Commander Marty Lawhorn as the Michigan District Director of Royal Rangers and that means he is the Chairman of the FCF Chapter. Commander Marty, if you need a place to stay at an event just let President Indian Joe, or any of us FCF Staff members know and we will find a place for you. Many of us have room and would be happy to share our lodge.

Remember all musicians bring your instruments and help us praise the Lord at each service. Also this is a shout out to all members to come and help us mentor any new members into a closer commitment with the Lord.

Remember stay humble, lean on God's word as you follow Christ and his plan for you life will be a trip you will always want to share.

All Young Bucks, if you plan to run for Scout at Spring Trace, you need to fill out the application to run. The application is on our web page. <http://michiganfcf.weebly.com/>

If you want to join FCF this spring, the application must be submitted by first week in May, to Ron Rabideau (Indian Joe)
